The National Presbyterian Church

Gentlemen:

Thank you most kindly for your invitation of 14 January inviting me to be a guest at a Congressional Dinner to be held at the Church Hall on 27 January 1958.

Such as I would like to be with your group on this occasion, a prior commitment for that evening precludes my attending. Therefore, I must regretfully decline your very kind invitation. Your courtesy in asking me to be your honored guest is deeply appreciated.

Once again, many thanks and kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

We earnestly hope that you will be able to be our guest on January 27. You will find enclosed a card to facilitate your acceptance of this invitation.

Sincerely yours,

Wilber M. Brucker
